

I just want to say how completely disgusted I am about the NBA trying to ruin a service that I PAY FOR. Who do you people think you are? This is America and if I pay for a service, I should be able to receive the service. By you taking away stations and such, you are taking away my liberty. Please do NOT start such foolishness. Leave XM and it's subscribers alone! Isn't there anything else more important than PAID radio airplay?